1. Consolidated Performance

(1) Performance Overview of the Consolidated Fiscal Year under Review (January 1, 2018–December 31, 2018)

During fiscal 2018 (January 1, 2018–December 31, 2018), the Japanese economy as a whole continued to gradually improve, backed by ongoing recovery in personal consumption and corporate profits amid steady improvement in employment.

The market in the Lion Group's main business domain, the domestic consumer products industry, was steady, as unit prices continued to rise.

Under its new management vision, "Becoming an advanced daily healthcare company," the Lion Group has launched the LION Value Evolution Plan (LIVE Plan) medium-term management plan for the three years beginning fiscal 2018. To achieve the management vision, Lion has been implementing measures based on the basic strategies "Expand and Evolve Our Business Domains through New Value Creation," "Accelerate Growth in Overseas Businesses through Glocalization,"* "Reinforce Our Management Base through Business Structure Reform" and "Create Dynamism to Foster Innovative Change" while introducing future-oriented growth initiatives in and outside Japan.

In its domestic operations, Lion introduced such new products as toothpastes, toothbrushes, mouthwashes, body washes, laundry detergents, fabric softeners and eye drops and worked to cultivate markets for these products through aggressive marketing. At the same time, in the Living Care field, the Company launched new products that offer new living habits. In its overseas operations, the Group sought to develop its key brands and increase profitability, focusing mainly on the personal care field, including oral care and beauty care products.

Reflecting these efforts, consolidated results for fiscal 2018 are as follows. Net sales amounted to ¥349,403 million, a year-on-year increase of 2.0% (or an increase of 1.4% in terms of real net sales, which exclude the influence of exchange rate conversions). Core operating income came to ¥28,375 million, down 1.5% compared with the previous fiscal year, and operating profit to ¥34,196 million, up 12.2% year on year. Profit for the period attributable to owners of parent totaled ¥25,606 million, up 22.6% compared with the previous fiscal year.

In addition, Lion adopted the International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRS) from the fiscal year under review. Figures herein for the previous fiscal year are presented according to IFRS.

Note: Core operating income is an earnings indicator the Company uses to measure regular business performance by subtracting selling, general and administrative expenses from gross profit.

During fiscal 2019 (the year ending December 31, 2019), although gradual continued recovery is forecast for the Japanese economy, the outlook going forward is expected to remain unclear, reflecting the impact of the scheduled consumption tax hike, shifts in raw material prices and currency exchange rates, geopolitical risks and other factors.

In the domestic toiletries industry, the Lion Group's main business domain, despite anticipated expansion in the market for high-value-added products, competition is expected to remain fierce.

Amid these circumstances, the Lion Group will aim to improve corporate value as it rapidly implements the strategies outlined in the LION Value Evolution Plan (LIVE Plan) medium-term management plan.

In the Consumer Products Business segment, the Lion Group will cultivate markets for high-value-added products in its mainstay businesses, working to improve its market position and strengthen profitability while offering new value to customers. The Group will also work to expand production capacity, especially in the oral care field, and make its production system more efficient.

In the Industrial Products Business segment, Lion will focus management resources on key areas, such as automotive and electrical/electronic products, to reinforce its business foundation. Furthermore, Lion will continue efforts to cultivate new customers in its vegetable washing system business.

With regard to the Overseas Business segment, the Lion Group will continue its aggressive marketing activities, primarily in the area of personal care, and strengthen sales through e-commerce channels, seeking to expand its business.

As a result of the above, consolidated results forecasts for fiscal 2019 are as follows: net sales of ¥360,000 million (up 3.0% year on year), core operating income of ¥31,500 million (up 11.0% year on year), operating profit of ¥31,000 million (down 9.3% year on year) and profit attributable to owners of parent of ¥21,000 billion (down 18.0% year on year).

Assumptions Underlying the Forecast of Consolidated Financial Results for Fiscal 2019

Lion utilized the following foreign exchange rates in the calculation of the aforementioned forecasts.

¥110= US$1.00

¥3.4 = 1.00 baht

3. Basic Policy on the Distribution of Earnings and Cash Dividends

Lion considers returning profits to shareholders on a continuous and stable basis by increasing its consolidated earnings capacity to be one of its most important management issues. To this end, the Company strives to ensure the payment of continuous and stable cash dividends, aiming for a consolidated payout ratio of 30%, and bases the acquisition of treasury stock on comprehensive reviews to ensure that it maintains levels of internal reserves required to secure medium- and long-term growth. Lion allocates internal reserves to research and development, capital investment in production facilities and the acquisition of external resources, aiming to reinforce the Company's growth potential and to develop a sustainable business foundation.

Taking into consideration the Company's cash dividend payment record, as well as its dividend payout ratio target, Lion's Board of Directors resolved to pay an interim dividend of ¥10 per share (payment date: September 4, 2018) and a year-end dividend of ¥10 per share (payment date: March 1, 2019) for fiscal 2017.

With regard to dividends for fiscal 2019, in accordance with its basic policy on the distribution of earnings and cash dividends, Lion plans to pay an interim dividend of ¥10 per share and a year-end dividend of ¥11 per share, for a total annual dividend of ¥21 per share.

4. Business Risks

The Lion Group's management performance and financial status may be adversely affected by various risks as business activities are pursued in the future. Of these risks, the following items, in particular, may have a material impact on the decisions of investors.

Forward-looking statements are based on decisions made by the Lion Group as of February 13, 2019.

Business risks are not limited to the items listed below.

(1) Product quality and value

The Lion Group plans, develops, produces, and sells products under management based on international quality standards while strictly following related laws and regulations, such as the Pharmaceutical and Medical Device Act, to provide worry-free, safe, convenient, and environmentally conscious products to consumers. In addition, we use consumers' opinions received through our Consumer Service Office to improve our products and packaging as well as respective displays and text.

In the event of an unforeseen and serious problem with product quality, however, the affected product and all products made by the Lion Group may lose their perceived value. This may adversely affect the Lion Group's management performance and financial status.

(2) Changes in raw material prices

The Lion Group's products use petrochemical and vegetable oils and fats as basic materials. Since these materials are easily affected by international market prices, we have measures in place to reduce costs and diversify the range of materials used. However, an increase in raw material prices may adversely affect the Lion Group's management performance and financial status.

(3) Exchange rate fluctuations

The Lion Group translates into yen the financial statements of overseas subsidiaries when preparing consolidated financial statements. For items denominated in foreign currency, their yen values may be affected by prevailing foreign exchange rates when translated into yen. The Lion Group has taken steps to minimize the risk of an increase in raw material costs by hedging against exchange rate fluctuations. However, short-, medium-, and long-term changes in foreign exchange rates may adversely affect the Lion Group's management performance and financial status.

(4) Major lawsuits

As of February 13, 2019, Lion is not involved in any lawsuits that may have significant impact on its business. However, if the Lion Group were to be sued and found liable for significant damages, these could adversely affect the Lion Group's management performance and financial status.

(5) Earthquakes and other natural disasters

In the product manufacturing process, the Lion Group has put in place safety measures against earthquakes and other natural disasters. In the event of a major disaster, however, our production equipment may be damaged, or a suspension of raw materials procurement or distribution activities may cause business activities to cease, adversely affecting the Lion Group's management performance and financial status.

(5) Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements

Notes Relating to the Assumption of a Going Concern

Not applicable.

Reporting Company

Lion Corporation (hereinafter “the Company”) is a company, as defined by Japan’s Corporation Law, that is based in Japan. The consolidated financial statements of the Company and its subsidiaries (hereinafter the “Group”) presented herein comprise the results for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2018 recorded by the Company, its subsidiaries and the Group’s interests in its equity-method affiliates.

Information about the Group’s primary business activities can be found in the note “Segment Information.”

Basis of Preparation

(1) Compliance with IFRS

The Group’s consolidated financial statements have been prepared in accordance with the International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRS) issued by the International Accounting Standards (IAS) Board.

The Group meets the requirements for a “designated international accounting standards specified company” as specified in Article 1-2 of the Ordinance on Terminology, Forms, and Preparation Methods of Consolidated Financial Statements. As such, the provisions of Article 93 of said ordinance apply.

The Group has applied IFRS for the first time from the first quarter of the fiscal year ended December 31, 2018. Accordingly, the consolidated financial statements for the fiscal year under review are the Company’s first IFRS-compliant consolidated financial statements.

The date of transition to IFRS was January 1, 2017. Regarding the transition, the Group has applied the provisions of the IFRS 1 “First-time Adoption of International Financial Reporting Standards” (hereinafter “IFRS 1”). The impacts of the transition to IFRS on the Group’s financial position, business performance and cash flows are presented in the note “First-Time Application of IFRS.”

(2) Basis of measurement

Except for specific financial instruments stated in the note “Significant Accounting Policies” that are measured at fair value, the condensed consolidated financial statements have been prepared based on acquisition cost.

(3) Functional currency and presentation currency

The condensed consolidated financial statements are presented in Japanese yen, which is the Company’s functional currency. Amounts presented in Japanese yen are truncated at the nearest million.

(4) Accounting judgments, estimates and assumptions

In preparing the Group’s condensed consolidated financial statements, management makes estimates, judgments and assumptions that may affect the application of accounting policies and the reported amounts of assets, liabilities, revenues and expenses. Actual results may differ from these estimates.

Management reviews such estimates and their underlying assumptions on an ongoing basis. Revisions to accounting estimates are recognized in the period in which the estimate is revised and the future periods affected by such revisions.

Key items for which management made judgments, estimates and assumptions are as follows:

- Impairment of non-financial assets
- Recoverability of deferred tax assets
- Measurements of defined benefit plan liabilities
- Accounting treatment and appraisals of provisions
- Fair value of financial instruments

Significant Accounting Policies

Other than optional and mandatory exemptions provided for under IFRS 1, the Group's accounting policies are based on the mandatory provisions of IFRS as of December 31, 2018.

Unless otherwise noted, the significant accounting policies applied to these consolidated financial statements have been consistently applied to each fiscal period presented herein.

(1) Basis of consolidation

A. Subsidiaries

Subsidiaries are entities controlled by the Group. The Group is deemed to control an entity when, through its involvement with the entity, it has exposure to or holds rights to variable returns from the entity and has the authority to affect those returns through its power over the entity. The financial statements of subsidiaries are included in the consolidated financial statements of the Group from the date that the Group's control commences until the date that said control ceases. Balances and internal transactions existing between the Company and subsidiaries or between subsidiaries as well as any unrealized income and expenses arising from such transactions are eliminated when preparing the consolidated financial statements. Non-controlling interests in subsidiaries are recognized separately from the Group's interests.

The comprehensive income of subsidiaries is attributed to the owners of the parent and any non-controlling interests even if doing so results in a negative non-controlling interest balance.

B. Affiliates

Associates are companies over whose financial and operating policies the Group has significant influence but neither control nor joint control. The Group is assumed to have significant influence over a company if it directly or indirectly owns between 20% and 50% of said company's voting rights. Investments in affiliates are initially recognized at acquisition cost and accounted for by the equity method from the date that significant influence commences until the date said significant influence ceases.

C. Jointly Controlled Companies

A jointly controlled company is a company over which two or more parties, including the Group, share control per a contractual arrangement and for which important decisions require the unanimous consent of the parties sharing control.

The Group accounts for its investments in jointly controlled companies by the equity method.

(2) Business combinations

Business combinations are accounted for using the acquisition method.

The identifiable assets and liabilities of acquirees are measured at fair value on the acquisition date.

In the event that the total of the consideration transferred for the business combination, the non-controlling interests in the acquiree and the fair value of the equity in the acquiree already held by the acquirer exceeds the net amount of the acquiree's identifiable assets and liabilities on the acquisition date as measured in accordance with IFRS 3 "Business Combinations" (hereinafter "IFRS 3"), this excess is recognized as goodwill. The consideration transferred for the business combination is calculated as the sum of the fair value at the acquisition date of assets transferred by the acquirer, liabilities to the acquiree's former owners incurred by the acquirer and equity interests issued by the acquirer.

Whether the Group measures non-controlling interests at fair value or as the amount of the acquiree's identifiable net assets proportionate to the non-controlling interests is determined individually for each business combination. Acquisition-related costs are accounted for as expenses in the period in which they are incurred.

Additional acquisitions of non-controlling interests after the acquisition of control are accounted for as equity transactions, and the Group does not recognize goodwill from such transactions.

As the Group applies the optional exemption under IFRS 1, it does not apply IFRS 3 retroactively to business combinations prior to the transition date.

(3) Foreign currency translation

A. Foreign currency denominated transactions

Transactions denominated in foreign currencies are translated into the Group's relevant functional currencies using the exchange rates at the date of each transaction. Monetary assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies are translated using the exchange rates at the fiscal period-end, and exchange differences resulting from such translation are recognized as net gain or loss. However, if gains or losses associated with such assets and liabilities are recognized as other comprehensive income, exchange differences on such gains or losses are recognized as other comprehensive income.

Non-monetary assets and liabilities measured at acquisition cost that are denominated in foreign currencies are translated using the exchange rates at the date of transaction.

B. Foreign operations

The assets and liabilities of foreign operations, including goodwill and fair value adjustments resulting from the acquisition of foreign operations, are translated at the exchange rates as of the fiscal period-end date. Income and expenses recorded by foreign operations are translated using the average exchange rate during the fiscal period, except for cases of significant exchange rate movements during the fiscal period.

As the Group applies the exemptions under IFRS 1, the cumulative exchange differences on translation of foreign operations as of the transition date are deemed zero by transferring any such differences to retained earnings.

(4) Cash and cash equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents consist of cash on hand, readily available deposits and short-term, highly liquid investments with original maturities of three months or less that entail insignificant price fluctuation risk.

(5) Inventories

Inventories are measured at the lower of cost or net realizable value. Cost is calculated based on the moving-average method and includes purchase cost, processing costs and other expenses incurred in bringing the inventories to their present location and state. Net realizable value represents the estimated selling price in the ordinary course of business, less all estimated costs of completion and estimated costs necessary to make the sale.

(6) Property, plant and equipment

The Group applies the cost model to measure property, plant and equipment.

Property, plant and equipment is stated at acquisition cost less accumulated depreciation and accumulated impairment loss.

Such acquisition cost includes expenses directly attributable to the acquisition of assets; the costs of dismantling and removing such assets as well as restoring the site on which they are located; and borrowing costs that meet the requirements for capitalization.

For all property, plant and equipment other than land, the depreciable amount, calculated as acquisition cost less the residual value at the end of estimated useful life, is depreciated evenly over each asset's estimated useful life using the straight-line method.

Estimated useful lives, residual value and method of depreciation of property, plant and equipment are reviewed at the fiscal year-end, and the effect of any changes is accounted for on a prospective basis as changes in accounting estimates.

The estimated useful lives of the main categories of property, plant and equipment are as follows:

- Buildings and structures 3–50 years
- Machinery and equipment 8–20 years

(7) Goodwill

Goodwill arising from business combinations is stated at acquisition cost less accumulated impairment loss.

Goodwill is not amortized. It is allocated to a cash-generating unit or group of cash-generating units that are tested for impairment annually or whenever there is an indication of impairment. Impairment losses on goodwill are recognized in profit or loss, and no subsequent reversal is made.

The measurement of goodwill upon initial recognition is described in (2) Business combinations.

(8) Intangible assets

The Group applies the cost model to measure intangible assets.

Intangible assets are stated at acquisition cost less accumulated depreciation and accumulated impairment loss.

Intangible assets acquired individually are measured at acquisition cost at initial recognition. Intangible assets acquired through business combinations are measured at fair value at the acquisition date.

Expenditures on internally generated intangible assets are recognized as expenses in the period when incurred, except for those that satisfy the criteria for capitalization.

Intangible assets for which useful lives can be determined are amortized over their respective estimated useful lives using the straight-line method and tested for impairment whenever there is an indication of impairment.

The estimated useful life and depreciation method of intangible assets for which useful lives can be determined are reviewed at the fiscal year-end, and the effect of any changes is accounted for as changes in accounting estimates on a prospective basis.

The estimated useful lives of the main categories of intangible assets are as follows:

- Software 5 years

Intangible assets for which useful lives cannot be determined are not amortized but are tested for impairment annually and whenever there is an indication of impairment individually or as part of their respective cash-generating units.

(9) Leases

The Group classifies leases as finance leases whenever the terms of the lease transfer substantially all the risks and rewards of ownership.

Lease assets under finance leases are recognized at the lower of the fair value or the present value of the minimum lease payments.

After initial recognition, such assets are depreciated using the straight-line method over the shorter of their estimated useful lives or terms of lease, in accordance with applicable accounting policies.

Leases other than finance leases are classified as operating leases and are not recorded on the Consolidated Statement of Financial Position. Lease payments for operating leases are recognized as expenses using the straight-line method over the lease terms.

Whether or not a contract includes a lease is determined based on the substance of the contract, even if the contract does not take the legal form of a lease.

(10) Impairment of assets

A. Impairment of non-financial assets

The Group assesses whether there is any indication that assets may be impaired at each reporting period-end. If any such indication is found or the asset requires an annual impairment test, the Group estimates the asset's recoverable amount. The recoverable amount of an asset is estimated as the higher of fair value less disposal cost or value in use. If the recoverable amount of an individual asset cannot be determined, the recoverable amount of the cash-generating unit or group of cash-generating units to which the asset belongs is estimated. If the book value of a cash-generating unit or group of cash-generating units exceeds its recoverable amount, impairment of the corresponding assets is recognized, and their value is written down to the recoverable amount. In determining the value in use, estimated future cash flows are discounted to present value using a pre-tax discount rate that reflects current market assessments of the time value of money and the risks specific to the asset.

Note that, in principle, the business plans used to estimate future cash flows extend no longer than five years. Future cash flows beyond the estimates of the business plans are, in principle, calculated based on steady or declining rates of growth.

Fair value less disposal cost is calculated using appropriate valuation models backed by available indicators of fair value.

B. Reversal of impairment loss

At the end of each reporting period, the Company evaluates whether there is any indication that impairment losses recognized in prior years for assets other than goodwill have decreased or extinguished. If such indication of a reversal of an impairment loss exists, the recoverable amount of the asset, cash-generating unit or group of cash-generating units in question is estimated. If this recoverable amount exceeds the book value of the asset, cash-generating unit or group of cash-generating units, a reversal of impairment loss is recognized up to the lower of the recoverable amount or the book value less the depreciation and amortization that would have been recognized had no impairment loss been recognized. Reversal of impairment loss is recognized in profit or loss.

(11) Employee benefits

A. Post-retirement benefits

The Group operates defined benefit plans and defined contribution plans as retirement plans for its employees.

(i) Defined benefit plans

The Group calculates the present value of defined benefit obligation as well as related current and prior service costs for each plan individually using the projected unit credit method.

The discount rate is calculated based on market yields on high-quality corporate bonds that have terms corresponding to the residual terms until the estimated date of future payment as of the end of the corresponding reporting period.

Assets and liabilities related to defined benefit plans are calculated by deducting the fair value of plan assets from the present value of the defined benefit obligation.

Remeasurements of assets and liabilities related to defined benefit plans are recognized in their entirety in other comprehensive income for the period in which they occur and are immediately reflected in retained earnings.

Prior service costs are recognized as expenses for the period in which they are incurred.

(ii) Defined contribution plans

Costs related to defined contribution plans are recognized as expenses in the period in which the contributions are made.

B. Other employee benefits

Short-term employee benefits are not subject to discount and are recognized as expenses when the relevant services are provided.

The Group has legal or constructive obligations to pay bonuses. When a reliable estimate of such bonuses can be made, the estimated amount of bonuses to be paid is recognized as liabilities.

The Group has legal or constructive obligations related to its cumulative paid vacation systems. When a reliable estimate of such cost of paid vacation can be made, the estimated amount to be paid based on such systems is recognized as liabilities.

(12) Provisions

Provisions are recognized when the Group has a present obligation (legal or constructive) as a result of past events, it is likely that the settlement of said obligation will require an outflow of resources that carry economic benefits, and the amount of the obligation can be reliably estimated.

If the effect of the time value of money is material, the amount of a provision is measured at the present value of expenditures expected to be required to settle the obligation.

Present value is calculated using a pre-tax discount rate that reflects current market assessments of the time value of money and risks specific to the liability.

(13) Financial Instruments

I. Financial assets (excluding derivatives)

(i) Initial recognition and measurement

The Group initially recognizes trade and other receivables on the date that they arise. The Group initially recognizes all other financial assets at the trade date on which the Company becomes a party to the relevant contract.

Financial assets are classified as either (a) financial assets measured at fair value through profit or loss or other comprehensive income; or (b) financial assets measured at amortized cost. This classification is made upon initial recognition.

Financial assets are classified as financial assets measured at amortized cost when the following conditions are met:

- The financial asset is held based on a business model that has the objective of holding financial assets in order to collect contractual cash flows
- The contractual terms of the financial asset give rise on specified dates to cash flows that are solely payments of principal and interest on the outstanding principal

Equity equivalents are individually classified as either measured at fair value through profit or loss or measured at fair value through other comprehensive income, and this classification is continuously applied.

Debt equivalents are classified as measured at fair value through other comprehensive income when the conditions listed below are met and they are classified as measured at fair value through profit or loss when said conditions are not met.

- The financial asset is held based on a business model that has an objective that is achieved when contractual cash flows are collected and the asset is sold.
- The contractual terms of the financial asset give rise on specified dates to cash flows that are solely payments of principal and interest on the outstanding principal

With the exception of financial assets measured at fair value through profit or loss, financial assets are measured at the sum of fair value and transaction costs that are directly attributable to the financial assets in question.

(ii) Subsequent measurement

After their initial recognition, financial assets are measured using the following methods applied by financial asset category.

(a) Financial assets measured at amortized cost

Assets in this category are measured at amortized cost based on the effective interest method.

(b) Other financial assets

Financial assets other than those measured at amortized cost are measured at fair value.

Changes in the fair value of assets in this category are recognized either in profit or loss or in other comprehensive income.

Changes in the fair value of equity equivalents that are classified as financial assets measured at fair value through other comprehensive income are recognized in other comprehensive income. In cases where the Group derecognizes said assets or the fair value of said assets drops significantly, such changes are transferred to retained earnings.

Changes in the fair value of debt equivalents that are classified as financial assets measured at fair value through other comprehensive income are recognized in other comprehensive income, excluding impairment and gains and losses on foreign exchange until the derecognition or reclassification of the financial assets in question. In cases where the Group derecognizes said assets, previously recognized other comprehensive income is transferred to profit or loss.

(iii) Derecognition of financial assets

The Company derecognizes financial assets only when the contractual rights to the cash flows from the financial assets expire or when the financial assets and substantially all the risks and rewards of ownership are transferred.

(iv) Impairment of financial assets

At every fiscal period-end, the Group evaluates whether the credit risk of financial assets measured at amortized cost has increased significantly since each asset's initial recognition. If said risk is not found to have increased significantly, the asset's 12-month expected credit loss is recognized under allowance for doubtful accounts. If said risk has increased significantly, the asset's lifetime expected credit loss is recognized under allowance for doubtful accounts. However, for trade receivables, the lifetime expected credit loss is recognized from the time of initial asset recognition.

To determine whether the credit risk has increased significantly, the Group refers to delinquency rate data and supported information that the Group can reasonably obtain, such as internal and external ratings.

Estimates of the expected credit loss on financial assets reflect the following factors.

- An unbiased and probability-weighted amount determined by evaluating a range of possible outcomes
- The time value of money
- Reasonable and supportable information that is available without undue cost or effort at the reporting date about past events, current conditions and forecasts of economic conditions

Increases in the allowance for doubtful accounts related to financial assets are recognized in profit or loss. When the allowance for doubtful accounts decreases, the reversal of said allowance is recognized in profit or loss.

B. Financial liabilities (excluding derivatives)

(i) Initial recognition and measurement

Financial liabilities other than derivatives are categorized as financial liabilities measured at amortized cost.

The Group initially measures all financial liabilities at fair value. In the case of financial liabilities measured at amortized cost, such fair value is less transaction costs that are directly attributable to the financial liabilities in question.

(ii) Subsequent measurement

After their initial recognition, financial liabilities measured at amortized cost are remeasured at amortized cost based on the effective interest method. Amortization determined by the effective interest method and gain or loss due to derecognition are recognized in profit and loss.

(iii) Derecognition of financial liabilities

Financial liabilities are derecognized when the relevant obligations are discharged; cancelled; expired and replaced by significantly different conditions; or changed to significantly different conditions.

C. Offset of financial instruments

Financial assets and liabilities are offset only when the Group currently has a legally enforceable right to offset the transactions and intends either to settle on a net basis or to simultaneously realize the financial assets and settle the financial liabilities. The net outcome of such offset is recorded on the Consolidated Statement of Financial Position.

D. Fair Value of Financial Instruments

The fair value of financial instruments being traded in active markets as of the end of the fiscal period is determined with reference to quoted market prices or dealer prices.

The fair value of financial instruments without active markets is calculated using appropriate valuation techniques or calculated with reference to prices stated by financial institutions with which the Group works.

E. Derivatives and Hedge Accounting

The Group utilizes such derivatives as forward exchange contracts and interest rate swaps as hedges against foreign exchange risk and interest rate risk, respectively. These derivatives are initially measured at fair value as of the contract date and subsequently remeasured at fair value.

Changes in the fair value of derivatives are recognized in profit or loss. However, the effective portion of cash flow hedges and hedges of net investment in foreign operations is recognized as other comprehensive income.

At the inception of a hedge relationship, the Group formally designates and documents the hedge relationship to which it is applying hedge accounting as well as its risk management objectives and strategy for undertaking the hedge.

This documentation includes the specific hedging instrument, the hedged items, the nature of the risk being hedged and how the Group will assess the effectiveness of changes in the fair values of the hedging instruments to offset exposure to changes in the fair value or cash flows of the hedged items due to the risks hedged against (including analysis of the sources of hedge ineffectiveness and the method of determining the hedging ratio).

Upon the designation of the hedge relationship and on an ongoing basis, the Group evaluates whether the derivative used in the hedge effectively offsets changes in the fair value or cash flows of the hedged item.

Specifically, a hedge is deemed effective if the economic relationship between the hedged items and hedging instruments will result in an offset.

Hedges that meet the criteria for hedge accounting are classified and accounted for as follows.

(a) Fair value hedges

Changes in the fair value of derivatives are recognized in profit or loss. When the fair value of hedged items changes (due to the hedged risks), the book values of such items are adjusted and the change is recognized in profit or loss.

(b) Cash flow hedges

The effective portion of gain or loss on hedging instruments is recognized as other comprehensive income, while the ineffective portion is recognized immediately in profit or loss.

The amount related to hedging instruments thus recorded as other comprehensive income is transferred to profit or loss when the hedged transaction affects profit or loss.

If hedged items result in the recognition of non-financial assets or liabilities, the amounts recognized as other comprehensive income are accounted for as adjustments to the initial book value of the non-financial assets or liabilities.

If the forecast transaction is no longer expected to occur, any related cumulative gain or loss that has been recognized as equity through other comprehensive income is transferred to profit or loss.

When a hedging instrument expires, is sold or is terminated or exercised without being replaced with another hedging instrument or renewed, or when hedge accounting is discontinued due to a change of risk management purpose, any related cumulative gain or loss that has been recognized as equity through other comprehensive income remains recorded as equity until the forecast transaction occurs.

(c) Hedges of net investment in foreign operations

Translation differences resulting from the hedge of net investment in foreign operations are accounted for similarly to a cash flow hedge. The effective portion of gains or losses on hedging instruments is recognized as other comprehensive income, while the ineffective portion is recognized in profit or loss. When foreign operations are disposed of, any related cumulative gain or loss that has been recognized as equity through other comprehensive income is transferred to profit or loss.

(14) Stock-based compensation

A. Stock option system

The Company grants Group directors and executive officers stock options that can be exercised to purchase shares of the Company. Stock options are measured at fair value estimated at the grant date and recognized in profit or loss over the vesting period, with an equal amount recognized as equity.

B. Performance-linked stock-based compensation system

The Company grants shares of the Company to directors (excluding external directors) and executive officers through a trust. Consideration for services received is estimated based on the fair value of Company shares at the grant date and recognized in profit or loss over the vesting period, with an equal amount recognized as equity.

(15) Revenue

The Group applies the following steps to recognize revenue.

Step 1: Identify the contract with a customer

Step 2: Identify the performance obligations in the contract

Step 3: Determine the transaction price

Step 4: Allocate the transaction price to the performance obligations in the contract

Step 5: Recognize revenue when the Group satisfies a performance obligation

Revenue is recognized at a point in time or over a period of time when a performance obligation in a contract with a customer is satisfied. Revenues from the sale of goods in the course of normal business activities are recorded when said goods are delivered, as the performance obligation is satisfied upon the transfer of control of the goods to the customer. Specifically, revenue is recognized when the goods are delivered, as the legal ownership, physical ownership, and significant risk and economic value of ownership of the goods are transferred to the customer upon said goods' delivery.

The Group has in place a distribution system in which, in principle, products are delivered to customers on the day they are shipped, and there is no significant time lag between shipping and delivery.

Revenue is measured at the monetary amount of consideration to which the Group gains a right in exchange for the transfer of the promised goods to the customer, factoring in discounts, rebates and returns. The consideration that the Group expects to refund to customers is recorded as refund liabilities. Said refund liabilities are estimated using a modal value based on the terms of the relevant contracts, past performance and other factors. Furthermore, advances received from customers are recorded as contract liabilities.

Consideration for goods under sales contracts is mainly collected within 12 months of the transfer of control over said goods to the customer. This consideration includes no significant financial elements.

For performance obligations satisfied over time, the Group recognizes revenue over time based on estimates of its progress toward the complete satisfaction of the obligation.

(16) Finance income and finance costs

Finance income is composed mainly of interest income and dividend income. Interest income is recognized by the effective interest method when it arises. Dividend income is recognized when the Group's right to receive it is established.

Finance costs are composed mainly of interest expenses.

(17) Income taxes

Current income taxes for the current period and prior periods are measured at the amount expected to be paid to or recovered from the taxation authorities using the tax rates and tax laws that have been enacted or substantively enacted at the end of the fiscal period.

Deferred taxes are recognized using the asset and liability method on temporary differences arising between the tax bases of said assets or liabilities and their accounting book values.

In principle, deferred tax liabilities are recognized for all taxable temporary differences, and deferred tax assets are recognized for deductible temporary differences and tax loss carryforwards to the extent that it is probable that taxable profits will be available against which said deductible temporary differences and tax loss carryforwards can be utilized.

However, as exceptions to the above, the following temporary differences are not recorded as deferred tax assets or liabilities.

- Temporary differences arising from the initial recognition of goodwill
- Temporary differences arising from the initial recognition of assets and liabilities in transactions other than business combinations that affect neither the accounting profit nor the taxable profit
- Deductible temporary differences associated with investments in subsidiaries and affiliates or interests in joint-control agreements when it is probable that such differences will not reverse in the foreseeable future, or it is improbable that taxable profits against which the differences can be utilized will be earned

- Deductible temporary differences associated with investments in subsidiaries and affiliates or interests in joint-control agreements when the timing of the reversal of the temporary differences can be controlled by the Group and it is probable that the temporary differences will not reverse in the foreseeable future

The book values of deferred tax assets and liabilities (including unrecognized deferred tax assets) are reviewed at the end of each fiscal period.

Deferred tax assets and liabilities are measured using the estimated tax rates for the periods in which the deferred tax assets are realized or deferred tax liabilities are settled based on tax rates and tax laws that have been enacted or substantively enacted as of the end of the fiscal period.

Deferred tax assets and liabilities are offset if the Group has a legally enforceable right to offset a current tax asset against a current tax liability and the same taxation authority levies income taxes either on the same taxable entity or different entities that intend to realize the asset and settle the liability at the same time.

(18) Assets held for sale

Non-current assets or disposal groups whose book value or fair value is expected to be recovered through sale and not continuing use are classified as assets held for sale. However, to be classified as assets held for sale, said non-current assets or disposal groups must be available for immediate sale and highly likely to be sold within 12 months. Assets held for sale are measured at the lower of book value or fair value less selling cost. Assets categorized as held for sale are not subject to depreciation or amortization.

(19) Equity

A. Share capital and capital surplus

The issue price of equity instruments issued by the Company is recognized in share capital and additional paid-in capital. Transaction costs arising directly from such issuance are deducted from additional paid-in capital.

B. Treasury stock

When the Company acquires treasury stock, said treasury stock is recognized at acquisition cost and stated as a deduction from equity. In addition, transaction costs arising directly from such acquisition are deducted from equity. When the Company sells treasury stock, the consideration received is recognized as an increase in equity, and any difference between the book value and the consideration received is included in additional paid-in capital.

(20) Earnings per share

Basic earnings per share are calculated by dividing profit for the period attributable to common stock of the Company by the weighted-average number of outstanding common shares adjusted for treasury stock. Diluted earnings per share are calculated by adjusting for the effect of all potentially dilutive shares.

(21) Government grants

Income from government grants is measured at fair value and recognized when there is reasonable assurance that the requirements for the issue of the grant will be met and the grant will be received. Grants for expenses are recorded as revenue in the same fiscal year as the relevant expenses. Grants for the acquisition of assets are recognized under liabilities as deferred income that is then recognized in profit or loss on a systematic basis over the useful lives of the related assets.

Segment Information

1) Overview of reportable segments

The Group's reportable segments are component units of the Company for which separate financial information is available and that are subject to regular review by the Board of Directors for the purpose of making decisions regarding the allocation of management resources and evaluating business performance.

The Group's business divisions are organized by product category; each business division formulates a comprehensive strategy and carries out business activities for the products it handles. Affiliated companies in Japan undertake business activities pertinent to the characteristics of their respective products and services.

Affiliated companies located overseas are independent management units that conduct business activities pertinent to the characteristics of the regions in which they operate.

Accordingly, the Group comprises three reportable segments divided by product and service type and by region, which are in turn based on business divisions and companies; namely, the reportable segments are Consumer Products Business, Industrial Products Business and Overseas Business.

The Group's reportable segments are as follows.

A. Consumer Products Business

The Consumer Products Business engages in the manufacture and sale of commodities, over-the-counter drugs and foods with function claims, primarily in Japan.

Main products: Toothpastes, toothbrushes, hand soaps, antipyretic analgesics, eye drops, health tonic drinks, insecticides, laundry detergents, dishwashing detergents, fabric softeners, household cleaners, bleaches and pet supplies

B. Industrial Products Business

The Industrial Products Business engages primarily in the manufacture and sale of chemical raw materials, industrial products and other items in Japan and overseas.

Main products: Activator, electro-conductive carbon and detergents for institutional use

C. Overseas Business

Plan asset management policy

The pension assets held by the LION PENSION FUND account for approximately 60% of the Group's plan assets. Management of the LION PENSION FUND's pension assets is aimed at securing the necessary total returns over the long term to ensure the payment of the defined benefit obligation going forward. Specifically, the Group manages such assets by considering factors that include the expected rates of return, risk and combinations of investment assets to determine an investment asset mix that will be optimal into the future and then maintaining this mix. Every year, the asset mix is evaluated, and if the conditions upon which it was formulated have changed, it is revised as needed. In addition, in the event of unforeseen market conditions, risk asset weights may be temporarily adjusted.

The retirement benefit trusts set up for the defined benefit corporate pension plans operated by the LION PENSION FUND at the Company and the lump-sum retirement benefit payment plans maintained by the Company account for approximately 40% of plan assets. The Company's strategically held shares account for the majority of the assets in these retirement benefit trusts. The investment profitability of each such stockholding is recognized as cost of capital and other items, and the Company's Board of Directors examines the economic rationality of each such stockholding on an annual basis.

First-Time Application of IFRS

Commencing with the fiscal year ended December 31, 2018, the Group discloses consolidated financial statements that have been prepared in conformity with IFRS. The most recent consolidated financial statements the Group has prepared according to Japanese GAAP (JGAAP) are those for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2017, and the date of transition to IFRS is January 1, 2017.

In principle, IFRS requires companies applying IFRS for the first time to also apply it retroactively. However, IFRS 1 “First-time Adoption of International Financial Reporting Standards” (hereinafter “IFRS 1”) provides optional exemptions to such retroactive application for certain matters while imposing mandatory exemptions forbidding the retroactive application of certain other standards. The Group applied mainly the following exemptions.

Exemptions under IFRS 1

(1) Business Combinations

Under IFRS 1, companies may choose to apply IFRS 3 “Business Combinations” either retroactively or prospectively. The Group has chosen to not retroactively apply IFRS 3 to business combinations carried out prior to the transition date. As a result, business combinations carried out prior to the transition date are accounted for using JGAAP and have not been restated.

In principle, the book value of goodwill arising from business combinations according to JGAAP, the standard used before the transition date, is unchanged. However, because the Group is retroactively applying IAS 21 “The Effects of Changes in Foreign Exchange Rates,” all extant foreign-currency denominated goodwill is translated at the exchange rates as of the fiscal period-end date.

Goodwill is tested for impairment as of the transition date regardless of the presence of indications of impairment.

(2) Deemed cost

Under IFRS 1, the fair value of property, plant and equipment at the transition date can be used as deemed cost. The Group uses the fair value at the date of transition as the deemed cost for certain items of property, plant and equipment.

(3) Exchange differences on translation of foreign operations

Under IFRS 1, entities can elect either to deem accumulated exchange differences on translation of foreign operations zero as of the transition date, or to retroactively calculate the exchange differences to the date of the founding or acquisition of the relevant subsidiary or affiliate. The Group has opted to deem accumulated exchange differences on translation of foreign operations zero at the date of transition.

(4) Designation of financial instruments recognized prior to transition date

Under IFRS 1, financial assets recognized prior to the transition date can be designated appropriately in accordance with IFRS 9 “Financial Instruments” (hereinafter “IFRS 9”) based on facts and circumstances that exist as of the transition date. The Group has elected to use facts and circumstances that existed as of the transition date to designate financial instruments in accordance with IFRS 9.

Mandatory Exemptions under IFRS 1

IFRS 1 prohibits the retroactive application of IFRS with respect to accounting estimates, the derecognition of financial assets and liabilities, hedge accounting, non-controlling interests, the classification and measurement of financial assets, and the impairment of financial assets. The Company is applying IFRS to these items prospectively as of the transition date.

The reconciliations required upon first-time application of IFRS are as follows.

Note that “Reclassification” includes items that do not affect retained earnings and comprehensive income, and “Difference in recognition and measurement” includes items that do affect retained earnings and comprehensive income.

Notes Concerning Adjustments to Equity as of the Date of Transition to IFRS (January 1, 2017)

(1) Adjustments to trade and other receivables

The main adjustments to trade and other receivables are as follows. The standards for recognizing revenue for certain transactions changed and retained earnings have been adjusted accordingly. In addition, construction contracts accounted for using the percentage-of-completion method under JGAAP are now, under IFRS, accounted for using the construction cost recovery method, and costs are recognized as they are incurred.

(2) Adjustments to inventories

This consists mainly of certain supplies for sales promotions and other purposes that are recognized as assets under JGAAP but do not meet the definition of assets under IFRS. Retained earnings have been adjusted accordingly.

(3) Adjustments to property, plant and equipment

Adjustments to property, plant and equipment are mainly due to the following applications of deemed costs.

For certain items of property, plant and equipment, the Group uses fair value at the transition date as deemed cost. At the transition date, the JGAAP book value of the property, plant and equipment for which deemed cost was used was ¥3,796 million, and its JGAAP fair value was ¥2,205 million.

As a result of the above, property, plant and equipment at the transition date decreased ¥1,591 million. Retained earnings have been adjusted accordingly.

The fair value of these assets is based in part on the evaluations of independent appraisers with appropriate expert qualifications, which are categorized as level 3 inputs.

Furthermore, finance leases amortized as low-value lease assets under JGAAP are recorded as assets under IFRS.

(4) Adjustments to intangible assets

Under JGAAP, intangible assets for which a useful life cannot be determined are amortized using the straight-line method over an estimated useful life of 10 years. Under IFRS, these assets are not amortized. Retained earnings have been adjusted accordingly.

(5) Adjustments to deferred tax assets and deferred tax liabilities

The main adjustments to deferred tax assets and deferred tax liabilities are as follows. Due to temporary differences arising as a result of adjustments from JGAAP to IFRS, the Group has adjusted the amounts of deferred tax assets and deferred tax liabilities. In addition, under JGAAP, tax effects arising from the elimination of unrealized profit are calculated using the effective tax rate of the seller, but under IFRS, these are calculated using the effective tax rate of the buyer.

(6) Adjustments to other financial assets (non-current assets)

Under JGAAP, non-marketable equity securities are valued at cost and amortized, and impairment is recognized as needed in response to any decline in the financial condition of the issuing company. Under IFRS, non-marketable equity securities are designated as financial assets measured at fair value through other comprehensive income. Their fair value is measured regardless of the presence of an active market, and changes in such fair value are recognized as other comprehensive income and transferred to retained earnings if such securities are derecognized or their fair value drops significantly.

(7) Adjustments to trade and other payables (current liabilities)

The Group has adjusted refund liabilities in light of the IFRS requirements for the recognition of income. Retained earnings have been adjusted accordingly.

(8) Adjustments to other current liabilities

This consists mainly of unused paid vacation that is not recognized as a liability under JGAAP but is now recognized as a liability under IFRS. Retained earnings have been adjusted accordingly.

(9) Adjustments to other non-current liabilities

Special vacations and bonuses granted based on number of years of employment not recognized as liabilities under JGAAP are now recognized as liabilities under IFRS. Retained earnings have been adjusted accordingly.

(10) Adjustments to other components of equity

A. The Group has opted to apply the exemption provided for in IFRS 1, and, as such, has transferred the entire balance of cumulative exchange differences on translation of foreign operations to retained earnings as of the transition date, January 1, 2017. As a result, other components of equity decreased ¥445 million.

B. As a result of the evaluation of the fair value of the non-marketable equity securities described in note (6), other components of equity increased ¥1,130 million.

C. Under JGAAP, actuarial differences related to retirement benefits are recognized under other comprehensive income when they are incurred. Under IFRS, such differences are recognized as other comprehensive income in their entirety when they are incurred and immediately transferred to retained earnings. As a result, other components of equity increased ¥5,246 million.

Notes Concerning Adjustments to Equity as of December 31, 2017

(1) Adjustments to trade and other receivables

The main adjustments to trade and other receivables are as follows. The standards for recognizing revenue for certain transactions changed and retained earnings have been adjusted accordingly. In addition, construction contracts accounted for using the percentage-of-completion method under JGAAP are now, under IFRS, accounted for using the construction cost recovery method, and costs are recognized as they are incurred.

(2) Adjustments to inventories

This consists mainly of certain supplies for sales promotions and other purposes that are recognized as assets under JGAAP but do not meet the definition of assets under IFRS. Retained earnings have been adjusted accordingly.

(3) Adjustments to property, plant and equipment

Adjustments to property, plant and equipment are mainly due to the following applications of deemed costs.

For certain items of property, plant and equipment, the Group uses fair value at the transition date as deemed cost. At the transition date, the JGAAP book value of the property, plant and equipment for which deemed cost was used was ¥3,796 million, and its JGAAP fair value was ¥2,205 million.

As a result of the above, property, plant and equipment at the transition date decreased ¥1,591 million. Retained earnings have been adjusted accordingly.

The fair value of these assets is based in part on the evaluations of independent appraisers with appropriate expert qualifications, which are categorized as level 3 inputs.

Furthermore, finance leases amortized as low-value lease assets under JGAAP are recorded as assets under IFRS.

(4) Adjustments to goodwill

Under JGAAP, goodwill was amortized over reasonably estimated amortization periods. Under IFRS, from the transition date onward, goodwill is no longer amortized.

(5) Adjustments to intangible assets

Under JGAAP, intangible assets for which a useful life cannot be determined are amortized using the straight-line method over an estimated useful life of 10 years. Under IFRS, these assets are not amortized. Retained earnings have been adjusted accordingly.

(6) Adjustments to deferred tax assets and deferred tax liabilities

(8) Adjustments to trade and other payables (current liabilities)

The Group has adjusted refund liabilities in light of the IFRS requirements for the recognition of income. Retained earnings have been adjusted accordingly.

(9) Adjustments to other current liabilities

This consists mainly of unused paid vacation that is not recognized as a liability under JGAAP but is now recognized as a liability under IFRS. Retained earnings have been adjusted accordingly.

(10) Adjustments to capital surplus

Under JGAAP, to prepare for the grant of stock to directors (excluding external directors) and executive officers based on the Company's rules on the payment and issue of stock, etc., a provision is recorded in an amount corresponding to the estimated value of Company stock to be granted. Under IFRS, such grants are accounted for as equity-settled share-based compensation. Capital surplus has been adjusted accordingly.

Special vacations and bonuses granted based on number of years of employment not recognized as liabilities under JGAAP are now recognized as liabilities under IFRS. Retained earnings have been adjusted accordingly.

(12) Adjustments to other components of equity

A. The Group has opted to apply the exemption provided for in IFRS 1, and, as such, has transferred the entire balance of cumulative exchange differences on translation of foreign operations to retained earnings as of the transition date, January 1, 2017. As a result, other components of equity decreased ¥445 million.

B. As a result of the evaluation of the fair value of the non-marketable equity securities described in note (7), other components of equity increased ¥1,354 million.

C. Under JGAAP, actuarial differences related to retirement benefits are recognized under other comprehensive income when they are incurred. Under IFRS, such differences are recognized as other comprehensive income in their entirety when they are incurred and immediately transferred to retained earnings. In addition, under JGAAP, prior service cost is recognized under other comprehensive income when it is incurred and is amortized (recognized as net income or loss) beginning the fiscal year in which it is incurred using the straight-line method over a period not exceeding the estimated average remaining service years of employees. Under IFRS, prior service cost is recognized as net income or loss when it is incurred. Furthermore, under JGAAP, the Group recognized interest expenses determined by applying an interest rate to the defined benefit obligations as well as expected return on plan assets determined by applying the expected rate of return to the plan assets. Under IFRS, the Company recognizes a net interest amount determined by applying a discount rate to the net total of retirement benefit obligation and pension assets. As a result, other components of equity increased ¥507 million.

Under JGAAP, property taxes and other taxes and levies are recognized when they are paid. Under IFRS, such items are recognized when the event that triggers the incurrence of obligation occurs.

(3) Adjustments to the book value of goodwill

(5) Methods of accounting for retirement benefit liabilities

Under JGAAP, actuarial differences are recognized under other comprehensive income when they are incurred. Under IFRS, such differences are recognized as other comprehensive income in their entirety when they are incurred and immediately transferred to retained earnings. In addition, under JGAAP, prior service cost is recognized under other comprehensive income when it is incurred and is amortized (recognized as net income or loss) beginning the fiscal year in which it is incurred using the straight-line method over a period not exceeding the estimated average remaining service years of employees. Under IFRS, prior service cost is recognized as net income or loss when it is incurred. Furthermore, under JGAAP, the Group recognized interest expenses determined by applying an interest rate to the defined benefit obligations as well as expected return on plan assets determined by applying the expected rate of return to the plan assets. Under IFRS, the Company recognizes a net interest amount determined by applying a discount rate to the net total of retirement benefit obligation and pension assets.

(6) Transfer of supplies

Certain items for sales promotions and other purposes that were included as supplies in "Inventories" under JGAAP do not meet the definition of assets under IFRS and are therefore recorded under "Selling, general and administrative expenses" as they arise.

(7) Reclassifications

To comply with IFRS, the Group has reclassified certain elements of profits (losses) and comprehensive income. The main changes are as follows.

Among items that were stated under JGAAP as "Non-operating income," "Non-operating expenses," "Extraordinary income" and "Extraordinary loss," those related to finance or to gains and losses on foreign exchange are now stated as "Finance income" or "Finance costs," while other items are now stated as "Other income," "Other expenses" or "Share of profit of investments accounted for using the equity method" under IFRS.

Notes Concerning Adjustments to Cash Flows in the Year Ended December 31, 2017
